Our deepest sympathies to Carol & family and to my Uncle Al's daughter Karen. We lost a great man but I know he will be watching over everyone while he keeps my Mom & Dad company in Heaven. Too many memories to list here - but suffice it to say that he was such a special person & touched so many people during his life that there will be a great void here on earth that will be difficult to fill. I will especially miss his smiling face, loving manner, his terms of endearments and his very entertaining stories! Love you lots Uncle Al & we will miss you dearly!!! Love, Renee & Terry Britner

My deepest condolences go out to Carol and Uncle Al's family. He was such a great and funny man and I will miss him dearly. Ever since I was a little kid, we would know that Uncle Al was coming when his VW van came rolling into the driveway! I also love that in this picture he has on his hat because that is also something I remember about him from when I was little. Uncle Al always reminded me so much of my Grandpa and I'm glad that they're together again in heaven.

Kathy and I are very saddened to lose yet another WWII veteran who served his country with honor and dignity. Al was a dear neighbor who was there the moment we broke ground with our home taking progressive pictures along the way. We truly enjoyed his stories about the war, travel, and family. The most memorable story I can distinctly recall was when he was onboard his destroyer escorting the Missouri when the Emperor of Japan surrendered to the US. He told of watching the Emperor walk the gangway to the ceremonial signing table. The Emperor looked at Al and Al stuck his tongue out at him. I can see him doing that. We will miss his 8 bells, all is well. While deer hunting in the area, I would count on that ringing to let me know it was time to come out of the woods. If I didn't hear it, I would call him up and want to know why. Our thoughts and prayers are heartily sent to Carol and the families of Al and Carol. I will always cherish the time we spent visiting. Paul and Kathy ALWAYS enjoyed talking with Al when he was at Ken & Renee's home, enjoyed hearing his memories of serving in the military and of Moosup, my home town! He will be missed. So glad Ken & Renee were able to make some memories with him over the past year, taking extra time to visit and do some of his "bucket list" items. Praying for the family.
