Bill, I am so sorry for the loss. What a shock to hear this horrible news. All the memories I have, Janie was always there. Christmas, birthdays, grandparents, Dad would have been so sad. I pray for you, Bill. Please let us know how you are. I wish we had spoken more often, but I won't make that mistake in the future. With love and deep sadness, Karen

Bill, My prayers and thoughts are with you and your family. I will miss Jane, she was such a good person. She was the first person to make me feel welcomed into the South Windsor Kennel Club. I often helped her with the dogs at the shows. She will be greatly missed. Please feel free to ask if you should need anything.

Jane and I never met in person, but we were part of a group of Sheltie lovers that loved to share stories about our dogs. She had such a sad loss of Miss Pixie a very short time ago, and we believe and hope that they are reunited at the Rainbow Bridge.
