Hi daddy I was just thinking about you and looking at pictures and videos I have of you. I miss you so much daddy and I only hope that you are still watching over us up there. You would be so proud of all your kids and how far we have come in life. I think about you often and I wish you could still be apart of our lives. I got a tattoo on my wrist of a rose to remind me that you are always with me. My middle name is rose and you drew the most beautiful roses. I hope someday I can talk to you again... I have so much to tell you and joke around about. I miss your sense of humor and your smile, it is something that I always think about when remembering you. The smell of "cars" on a mechanic is another thing that reminds me of you. I love that smell because it makes me think my dad is with me. I want you to know that I do notice the signs you show me and I thank you for giving me those signs. On my hardest days you come to visit me and send me signs to let me know everything will be okay. I know you're still there and I will always remember the memories we share together. Continue to rest easy daddy, I love you so much ❤️

I'm Lucas Pacheco the son of my dad. I just came here today because I want to finally share my thoughts about how he was to me. He was the best dad you could have even tho threw out his struggles he always found a way to make me happy all the time I wish this would of never happened. Wish my dad could see me progress to how I've become now.

I was best friends with Jennifer, the mother of his two daughters. I remember Michael as a fun, loving man, he had courage, strength, a smile that would make you remember him, and he was a man of many talents. I always called him Chico!:) I have many memories of him but one of my favorites is his love for music. Maybe that had changed....I'm sorry for your loss, Alyssa, and Kayla, I love you two very much, and will always be here.

Mike, You will be missed. I'll always remember you as a quiet observer, introspective thinker, smart and talented cousin. You could sit down at a piano and play a tune by ear. You always had the good looks, the nice car and a great smile that I looked up to. We didn't get to see much of each other growing up, but your memory will always be held on to as we hung out during family gatherings as kids. To Mike's family; I'm so sorry for the loss of a husband, father and friend. He is at peace now in heaven and may you find strength in the faith that he is in a better place. With Love, Nathan

Mike, I will miss you dearly but I will always treasure the memories that you and Stacey have shared with me and how I was your nanny to the kids. I felt very honored for you to call me nanny Jo. I'll miss asking you for advice on my car but you'll always be in my heart. When I look up in the sky at night, you will be one of those stars looking down at us and I know you'll be there in our hearts and spirit. I love you and miss you dearly. Love, Mary Jo

I haven't seen Mike in a few years but we used to work together and have lunch everyday. He was always quick to lend a hand and was a man of many talents. I remember the Christmas party when he jumped on the piano and surprised everyone with his skills. He even convinced me to ditch the nerdy haircut for a different style which I still wear today. Rest in Peace Mike, and to his family he will be watching over you and you will see him again I am sure.
