Loretta led a joyful life, always laughing, smiling, and quick to make a new friend. Truly interested in our lives, she always was eager to hear about the latest adventure...or share tales of hers. Ret was content to drive her woody station wagon or her volvo sedan, anywhere the road would take her...and if she happened to see a hawk or a beehive along the way, well then that was a good day. Whether at Maple Corners or Patten Road, coffee in a blue willow cup always tasted better at Ret's house. I will miss you ole girl.....you and that red bandana-----xox
