sorry to hear the other day about veras passing, from her previous personal care lady, I don't get newspapers, I am sorry for your loss, I have missed vera a lot these past few years since she was at the hospital, I will have many memories of helping her keep the house up, and watching the birds in her backyard she was the first client I ever had and very special to me, she became my grandma. also remember willow as well, he was a real sweetheart, and loved to sit on m,y lap when vera and I had our little chats, will miss vera very much, and know she is glad to be with george again , know that we all will miss her terribly. olga palmer
