Peter, Michelle and all the family of Sandy, I would like to extend my condolences to everyone. Sandy and I go way back to when she lived with her Mom and Dad and Nancy up on Colburn Rd. We had quite the crew way back then with the Zabs, Finchs and Wests. Lots of great memories. I am so sorry for your loss. To my nieces and nephew you guys are in my thoughts and prayers. Peter & family, I am so sorry to hear about Sandy...She was a very sweet person who will always be in my heart. I've known her for many years, but became very close to her at the video store. She and Michelle worked for me there. What a treat they were. She will be missed. She will always be in your heart & mine...love Marcia

It is with such sadness that we heard of Sandy's passing. Sandy always greeted us with a beautiful smile from the time she was a little girl. How that smile will be missed! The Lord has an angel in heaven. We are so sorry for your loss.
