Rita was a proud and hard working woman, who loved her family. I will remember her walking along the road to home, happy to walk and enjoy the day, but taking an occasional ride, as i headed back to work. She always had a story to share about one of her grandchildren or great grandchildren, ever eager to talk about their milestones. I am certain you will miss her and i hope your warm memories sustain you.

I remember the times where I would come over when I was little had the funniest time laughed together, loved each other, and created memories. Even now when you're body is laid to rest, are memories, everyone's memories seem to still keep you alive. I hope you enjoy yourself in Heaven Grandma. It's finally your time to rest in peace.
