"He was there when I didn't understand, he was there when I was wrong, he was there when I cried, he was there when I lied. For some reason my dad was always there, when I needed him the most. His love was never ending. And now that he's gone there is an emptiness in my world, but not in my heart." Dad I will miss you.. R.I.P.

Death may take a body, but cannot take a life. The best thing my dad probably ever said to me after I lost my mom. So I will do my best to celebrate his life and treasure the awesome memories I have. ?

Daddy,I have been missing you so much. You have raised me from the time I was two to the person I am today. You were strong when I need to be helped and you were there with a hug when I need one. I was your pumpkin as you called me. I love you Daddy. There will never be a day that I will not think of you and the stories you told of me to all my boyfriends to make them laugh. I will always remember everything that you told me. And putting you hand on your head to show everyone in the room how beautiful you were. I will remember all the soda shops you took me to, so you can have a cup of coffie and a rootbeer float with double ice cream because you knew how much I liked it that way. Taking me to work, and all the other things you have done for me or helped me do over the years. It will never be the same with out you. You have told me over the years to that a person isn't gone from your hart and mind. As long as you have the memeries and the love for that person they will live on forever and ever. I beleave that with all my hart. Cause I love you so much and remember so much of you being in my life. I will never forget that.I LOVE YOU DADDY ALWAYS!!!
