Dear Lois, Robert, Mark and Family. I am so sorry for your loss of Scott. My thoughts are with you all during this tragic and difficult time. There are really no words to ease your pain, we can only hope that it gets a little bit easier as time goes on. Someone said that Scott is no longer in pain and can finally be at rest, and while that may be so, I think it is also important to mention the unique and special presence that Scott brought to this world. He was a very smart, creative, and intense individual. His potential for greatness was boundless and one could just imagine the things he could have accomplished, if able. Please take comfort in knowing that his oldest son, who had always thought they would meet one day, is also happy, healthy, and much loved. He has many of Scott's good qualities and was always told of the positive and good aspects of who Scott was. My thoughts will be with all of you, always.
