I worked with Corrinas grandmother Deb at Fashion Bug in Stafford for about three years, I remember how excited and proud Deb was when Corrie came up from Florida to visit every year, Deb would bring her in to visit all of us, she was a wonderful beautiful girl who will be thought of and remembered forever, all of her family and friends are in my thoughts and prayers.

My condolences to the family and friends of sweet Corinna. I first meant Corinna and her Mother when she was still in high school and searching for employment. She struck me as a very smart, caring, mature, and dependable young woman. I was happy to employ her as one of my team members in the dietary department of an assisted/independent living facility. Corinna was one of the best team members a person could ever have working for me. She would do any work related task without a thought. She also always helped me on Saturdays to set up and tear down for the weekly tea parties. Later, when I was no longer employed with her, I heard she did the tea parties all by herself!!It is very sad for her passing, but just remember that she was a sweet young girl who gave her all in whatever she did.So, Corinna, dear, rest in peace with your son in God's heaven. God needed you more than we do. Perhaps, God wants you to do Tea Parties in heaven!!
Much Love, "Charlie"

My first girlfriend and the first girl I ever loved, it was a long time since I last talked to her, but I still cared.

Corinna, It's been just over a year since you left this plain. Not a day goes by that your memory doesn't invade my thoughts. It's getting easier to just think of the good times we had and smile, instead of dwell on the fact that I can't just call you so you can tell me I'm messing up, I miss that so much, I just hate that I never listened. Either way I took your passing as a learning experience and I'm doing better than ever. I've kept the same job for over a year, I'm just over a month away from completing cosmetology school, and I'm about to start my own business with the help of a seasoned business partner. I just wish you were here to say you were proud of me. Billy misses you too, he's still having trouble, he's a good guy though, like me he's made some bad choices. He and I get along great, I really wish we could have realized that sooner but you know we were both too prideful to let it be. Well sweetheart, I know you're up there looking down on us all, still yelling at us for every dumb thing we do, and laughing at us for everything else. I am just happy to know that one day we will all be able to see you again,. Love, Kyle
