Dear Florencel'm sorry to hear of your husbands death. You are fortunate that you have an apartment with your daughter and her family and don't have to worry about a place to live or the upkeep of a home on your own. I know the next few months will be mind numbing and lonesome but you are blessed with a wonderful family who have always been there for you and all of you will get through it together. The best way I dealt with Red's passing, was to remember him fondly at all of the holidays and just everyday times when we did something that reminded us of him. In my thoughts and prayers Candy Bryan
