Though we never had the opportunity to meet the matriarch of the Crossen family, we are certain via our recent experiences with Ray, Keisha and Roger that her character and integrity shines through these good folks. May god bless and keep you all. Sincerely, Kathleen and Mikel Jacobson

My condolences to the entire family on your Mom's passing-I know that none of you will remember who I am-My husband was Bo. He passed away in Jan. 2008-We were friends with Farn and Bob Bolduc when they lived in Green Manorville in Enfield. That does go back a few years. I remember Ellen as such a gracious lady-We used to go to their home in No. Grovenordale when Tom and Ray were young boys and Paula was a beautiful young girl. I remember her beautiful blond hair. Ellen taught me to sew. She helped me make a beautiful dress. Those days were some of the happy ones that I remember- Bo and I were married 55 years. I was sorry to read that Paula had died. May the Peace of Christ be with you all. God Bless. Genny Farnham
