Judy its been 10,(close to11 now) but I've held you in my ,my thought's of are everyday . You are my best friend and my life is so empty without you. I am just not the same . You were always by my side and cried when I cried we laughed all the time we were together(which was always). You taught me how to tie my shoes on the stairs at home, we would sit there and you would read to me and teach me words. You carried my up three flights of stairs at school when I broke my ankle just so I could attend my last day of 3rd grade . Oh how I miss you Us . I will never forget all the fun from childhood growing up working together sharing our lives with our beautiful girls. You were Brittany second mom, you made yourself available to at any giving moment . She misses you so. Mark thought the world. Your laugh I can still and your beautiful face I see . Miss you always but I will never forget you. Thanks for watching over me. Tell mom and dad I love them. ,and everyone else that's with .XOXO.

Dear Erin, We're deeply sorry to learn of your mother's passing, and know how difficult this time must be for you, your father, and your family. The tragedy of her loss is indeed great, but do know that your mother's affection, kindness, generosity and her enduring strength, so appreciated by so many, lives on in you. Your family and you are in our thoughts and in our hearts. Yours, Michael Orwicz & Robin Greeley

There is nothing that can be said today to ease your pain only time will help. Judy will always be remembered by all who knew her as a great person to all, loving mother to Erin and wonderful wife to you Homer. We are stunned by your loss but you can take solace in all who have and will express their extreme sorrow. I can assure you it is all genuine for all of us who knew her will miss her, her bright spirit and her never ending humor. You and Erin did everything to support Judy's fight to the end and in that you can take pride. I hope we can all remember her fighting spirit and live each day appreciating how much she fought to stay with us for as long as she could. Love to you, Erin and all your family during these days and all the days to come.
