Jennifer Dadalt

JAN 28, 1988 - DEC 31, 2008

Jennifer Lee DaDalt, 20, of Galotto St., Stafford Springs, CT, passed away unexpectedly and all too soon due to injuries sustained in an automobile accident on Wednesday, December 31, 2008. She was born in Springfield, MA, daughter of Anthony J. DaDalt and the late Violet "Dee" (Montagna) DaDalt. She is survived by her father, Anthony J. DaDalt of Stafford Springs, CT; brother, John Sullivan and his wife Georgette of Springfield, MA; paternal grandmother, Joyce (Butler) DaDalt of Stafford Springs, CT; the love of her life and best friend, Michael Leary; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins. Jennifer was a joy to all around her, and packed an amazing amount of life into her all too short time with us. She will be remembered as a loving friend, daughter, girlfriend, sister, aunt, niece, granddaughter, teacher, and classmate. Jennifer filled all those roles with style, grace, and an abundance of cheer, passion, and love. She was passionate about spending time with her boyfriend Michael, her family, her classes in Elementary Education at Eastern Connecticut State University, her job at the Stafford Food Center, her teaching, being at the beach, and showering her family with gifts during the holidays. Jennifer lived life to the fullest, filling every minute of every day. She loved being active at all times. She truly will be missed. Her funeral service will be held on Monday, January 5, 2009 with a procession forming by 9 A.M. at Introvigne Funeral Home, Inc., 51 East Main St., Stafford Springs, CT, followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 10 A.M. at St. Edward Church, High St., Stafford Springs, CT. Burial will follow in St. Edward Cemetery, Stafford Springs, CT. Calling hours are on Sunday from 2-5 P.M. at the funeral home. Dear Tony and family - As so many other people referenced, there are no words to convey how sad they are to hear of a beautiful, compassionate, young lady who is taken from you all too soon. While I didn't know Jennifer personally, her obituary was beautifully written and certainly gives you the aura of who she was. May God bless you and watch over you at this devistating time, and may He give you strength when you need His guidance. Love, Terry

Candy - I know that mere words can never replace the spirit and love of your Jennifer. I was stunned beyond belief when you called me with the news, and haven't been able to respond until now. Be aware of what a difference you made in her life - both as a child and what sounds like a remarkable young woman. I was so thrilled when you told me that Jennifer was going to join the teaching profession and heartbroken when I heard that her dreams wouldn't be realized. Our hearts and love go out to you and to Will. Love, Dot and Mark

Dear Candy: Words cannot express how we felt when we heard the news. We remember like it was only yesterday when Jen and her boyfriend were helping to set up the Yacht Club for Jo Jo's retirement party. She was so sweet and caring. This is partly because of the impact that you had on her life. I know that she was your heart. Please be consoled that when He takes someone so young, it is for a reason. If there is anything you need please don't hesitate to call. Love You!!

Family of Jennifer Lee DadaltVery sorry to read of the passing of your dear loved one Jennifer. She was so young with so much more to give in life. It seems that life is such a precious gift and yet so short-lived for the time we exist.I am writing to share a few words of comfort and encouragement from the source of truth the bible. God holds out a wonderful hope for all those in the grave.At John 11;25 Jesus said "I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE. HE THAT EXERCIES FAITH IN ME, EVEN THOUGH HE DIES, WILL COME TO LIFE."Yes Gods greatness is evident in the resurrection of his son Jesus . Moreover, that great act is a guarantee that the resurrection of others is possible. The bible gives nine accounts on ones who were resurrected. That should strengthened our faith that God can bring back to life the billions of dead people he holds within his perfect memory. (John 5-28,29) What a blessed reason to hope in God!Your gift of memories of Jennifer will bring you and your great joy.Grieving is the normal and natural respond to the loss of some one you love. I found three ways to help me. Talking and writing about my feeling. And reading the information in the bible on the resurrection.I hope these few words have lightened your grief strengthened your faith in our heavenly father. (Psalms 83-18)AgapeM.L.Hurt
