My heartfelt sympathies go out to all of Dylan's family and friends. I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. Dylan worked for me at Tyco. I can't say enough what a great guy Dylan was. He truly touched my life and I'm so glad that I had the opportunity to have known him. Every time that I hear Little Red Corvette, I think of him singing away to it and it brings a smile to my face. Dylan will surely be missed by many.

My deepest sympathies to all Dylan's family, the news of his death still does not seem possible, and I'm very dismayed to know that our paths will never cross again. All of us who worked with Dylan at Tyco have many fond memories of our time there with him. I can still see him rocking-out while working his machines, and that is how I will remember him.

My deepest sympathy to you all. Dylan and I worked together at Tyco and had a blast. His laughter, his hugs, his singing, he was one of the greatest guys I've ever met. His love for his family was something he openly shared with everyone. The best thing about him was he was never ashamed or embarrassed to express his feelings for people. We had some great times in the drill department and I'll miss him. Whenever I tell stories of working in drill, there is always a Dylan story in there. A great guy and I was lucky to know him and call him a friend. Wherever I go in this world, I will never meet another person like Dylan, I will never forget him either.

to the family of dylan, my deepest condolences for the loss of a very special person, my thoughts and prayers are with you in this most difficult time. dylan was a friend that always brought a smile to my face and a warmth in my heart. i am thankful to have known him and lucky enough to call him a friend. i have so many great memories with dylan, he will be missed so dearly each and every day! i am happy that i got to chat with dylan last summer at the truck stop in union while i was back up in connecticut for work. we had a chance to catch up on things, share a few laughs, which was how he always was and tell of any news of other friends we knew. i was short for time and had to go to work and in classic dylan style it was a handshake, followed by a hug and a kiss on the neck before you left his company. if i only knew i was hugging him goodbye for the last time. i am glad that i have that memory and so many more. i will miss him forever! deepest sympathies- scott macdonald
