To the family of Irene...Working with your mom at Stafford Printers was one of the warmest, most amusing times I've spent at work. There was always a smile on her face and a funny little quip ready for all. She was a wonderful, friendly, light-hearted woman whom many loved. She will be missed. Bless you all. Paula

In this time of sorrow I hope all the good memories will get you through. I remember as a little girl when Aunt Irene & Uncle Leo would come to the house for parties and he would play his guitar and she would sing. Everyone in the room would sing along. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

Jeannine, Philip, Paul and Family I wish you all my heartfelt condolences at the loss of your mother and grandmother. As I know my dad (Herve) loved all his brothers I also know there is even more joy and MUSIC in heaven as Uncle Leo and Aunt Irene are united again. These seasons of change are times to remember and appreciate all those we love. Warm regards, Diane
