Looking back, I have nothing but fond memories of Gram. She was a joy to just about everyone who was in contact with her. I remember her taking me toy shopping when we were young, then when I was a little older, I'd take her out for pizza at Rich's. She used to come to my baseball games, and she was even the first person to put me behind the wheel of a car (when I was 13)! She was such a great presence in my life growing up, my childhood wouldn't have been the same. I write this with a heavy heart, but I know she lived a very joyous and fulfilling life, having touched many people along her journey.
