William Morabito

MAR 3, 1943 - SEP 4, 2006

William D. Morabito, 63, of Willington, CT, passed away on Monday, September 4, 2006 at Rockville General Hospital, Rockville, CT. He was born in Dobbs Ferry, NY, son of the late Rocco and Violet (Thompson) Morabito. After graduating from the University of Hartford, Bill began his employment career as a teacher in the Hartford Public School System. In 1970, he began an almost 30 year career in Connecticut's Criminal Justice System. He held positions of parole officer, supervisor, and correctional warden. He held positions in State/Federal Half-Way House and the Juvenile Justice System. Bill was appointed by Governor Weicker to serve a four year term on the Connecticut Parole Board. After working five years with the Manchester Public Schools, he again went back to corrections to assist in the merging of the Connecticut Pardon's Board with the Connecticut Parole Board. Bill's hobbies included working outdoors, fishing along Connecticut's shoreline, and caring for his exotic birds. Bill is survived by a son, Brian S. Morabito of Ohio; a daughter and son-in-law, Laura M. and Scott Ralph of Indiana; three grandchildren, Daniel, Victoria, and Elizabeth; and friends, Lynn, Vic, and many others. He was predeceased by two brothers, Robert and Samuel Morabito. Calling hours will be held on Thursday, September 7, 2006 from 5-8 P.M. at Introvigne Funeral Home, Inc., 51 East Main St., Stafford Springs, CT. A graveside service and interment will take place on Friday, September 8, 2006 at 1 P.M. at Ferncliff Cemetery in Hartsdale, NY. For directions or online condolences, please visit:

Bill was a wonderful friend of mine which I met from the Bennet Cafeteria. He always had a smile on his face and I enjoyed chatting with him about his and my exotic birds. Bill will be remembered in my prayers and Sunday masses. God Bless him and he will be missed dearly. Marie Poland (Bennet Cafe)

To Bill's family-What a special person Bill was. Always a pleasant smile on his face and a kind word from his mouth. I hadn't seen Bill in over 30 years (since college) and he came to another friend's gathering last summer and really had not changed much. Still the gentleman. Keep all the wonderful memories that you have of Bill in your heart. You all, are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

Bill was truly a wonderful, interesting, and pleasant person to know. It's tragic for me in that I was sitting right next to him just a couple days before his untimely passing. News hit me like a ton of bricks. Bill loved his pets, his birds and his recently acquired and loved dog, Karla. I feel for them and hope they can find homes that take care of them just as Bill do so well and lovingly. We will remember this fine man, I can promise you. Bill, our prayers are with you. Thanks for the friendship, thanks for the service you rendered so well to our society. Your kind doesn't come along every day and I feel most fortunate to have known you.
