Maureen had a great and generous spirit, and she was an important mentor to me when I began school nursing for Stafford. Her warm heart and encyclopedic knowledge of nursing bolstered me throughout the time we had working together. She was a friend who accepted people as they were while always encouraging them to reach for higher levels. I will miss her.

Maureen always had time for the staff as well as the students. Just a few minutes talking with Maureen, made any day sunnier. She so loved her travels to Ireland, touring with her family members and meeting her Irish cousins. She was a true friend and colleague. The laughter, warmth, and caring she brought to everyone will always be remembered.
