The Apostol Family,We are stunned and deeply saddened to hear of Art's passing. Art was our financial advisor, the best in the field, and the kindest and most caring friend. After the bank's "transition," our friendship continued, and I hope he knew how much we appreciated him, and how much his friendship has meant to us all these years. He was taken way too soon, and he will be terribly missed. Art had a great love for family, and very proud of his family, and with that love, many dear memories were made. May those memories in time, help heal your pain and help fill the empty void you are feeling. Please accept our sincere condolences and know that our thoughts and prayers are with you.

My sincerest sympathies at the passing of Arthur. My parents were clients of his at New Alliance Bank. He would always welcome them with a warm hello and I got to know him also. He was an honest and hardworking man.

I remember Art as a smart, kind, and funny guy in high school. I even worked for a while washing dishes at his Dad's restaurant. He did not have a mean bone in his body. The world needs more people like Art.
