Jim, we appreciated all that you did for the camp, all year round. We, as the Children's Burn Camp, used the camp every July, in addition to the work parties. You were always a helping hand to us, and we always saw the love that you had for the camp and all that enjoyed it. Thanks for your service to our country in the military, and may you enjoy eternal happiness.

Jim, you have been the keeper of this very special camp which has left an indelible mark on hundreds of burn survivors. Your commitment, vigilance and love will be forever remembered by the fortunate people who got to walk, explore & grow on your "adopted home". Your burn camp family will miss you but certainly won't ever forget all you have done for us. Thanks for your service to our country and God Bless. Mucho love & respect. The Burn Camp Ropes Staff
