We are all so very sorry to hear of Leo's passing. He was a strong man with a gentle soul. He loved and supported his family through thick and thin. His was a tough road at times, but he handled everything with a quiet dignity that is an example to all. He loved his Yanks, and hit a softball farther than anyone I had ever seen. I know how much he loved my Aunt Lorraine, and his kids, and the grandkids that provided so much happiness in his later years. We will miss him, and our thoughts and prayers are with Lorraine and my cousins Diane, Nancy, Dave, Karen and Leo. God Bless you all, and your Dad. He was truly a special man.

I am three years younger than Leopaul and when I was very young, he had a positive influence on me, introducing me to basketball and baseball. We all played in Pope Park together and at St Ann's School gym. I learned much about how to be a good athlete from Leopaul. I can understand why he went on to be a coach and a leader in the Babe Ruth organization. My condolences to my cousin Lorraine and all of the family. F
