Michael,Joann,Rose and Jean,Where to start? Sweet Sweet Annie..... Who will ever forget the stubborness....the giggle when she was being fresh (but only when being antagonized), the smile on her face when she could hold a Grandchild and the crankiness across her brow when you did something she didn't like. You didn't mess with Annie's things..) A generous person with her family. She was like a little kid when it came to the holidays. She couldn't wait for the kids to open their gifts she had bought and her favorite part of every holiday was sitting around the table devouring the amazing food that was most often cooked by her daughter Joann whom she chastised for NEVER putting enough garlic in! Lord knows it didn't need anymore! These are just a few of the many memories I will forever hold of this sweet stubborn woman. My son is fortunate to have had such a wonderful Grandmother in his life. We will hold her in our hearts forever. May you all find peace with the years of wonderful moments spent with your beautiful Mom! Lisa and Tyler Cardini

Dearest Rose, Jean, Joann and Michael,We send our love, deepest condolences and hold you very close within hearts at this most difficult time. There is nothing like the loss of a parent. Quite a milestone. Our beloved Auntie Annie was truly "one of a kind". I have such wonderful memories of your summer visits to 22 Milton St. We had a ball!! I know these visits were especially dear to your Mom too, when she could come "home" to Brockton and spend time with her beloved mother, sisters and extended family; all of us together! Great times, I will always cherish. I can see her pretty, warm, loving smile before me. I am so blessed to have had wonderful, unique Aunties im my life. My love to all of you. See you Saturday. Love Pam & Gray on sunday i lost my amazing grandmother. i was so lucky to have her as long as i did and to have all the memories that i will keep next to my heart forever. i am even more grateful that i was able to have her in my daughters life as well. my grandmother was a strong tiny italian woman that taught me so much to make me the mother that i am today. she left us peacefully with a photo of my baby girl in her arms so that she could always protect her, and my mom at her side. I LOVE U GRANDMA!!

Mom, This is a prayer for you as you are taking your journey home to heaven. The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not be in want. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he restores my soul. He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. - Psalm 23:1-4 I can say I am grateful for the time we had together on sunday in prayers. We lifted our hearts to God and put out our love for him together. I will forever miss you Mom but know you now are in eternal rest and peace Jean Tassmer- Daughter

Dear Annie, So many will miss you. one thing I remember and loved about you was your humor. Sometimes the things you would come out with, so honest and funny. You cracked me up, thank you for that. You hold a special place in our hearts. So off you go now to be with the father and those whom you have loved that have gone before you. Until we meet again may peace and love be with you.. To the Family, So Sorry for your loss. Prayers turns the tide and softens the storms. May you all be calmed and encouraged by the waves of heartfelt prayer. Much love Felecia + Bob
