Me and her were best friends when we were kids but then she moved. I had this picture of us and I was trying to figure out her last name 2 months before I saw it on the news. Me and her were no longer close but I was searching for her so I could see how she had been. I'm so sorry for everyone who was close to her and for her boyfriend William's family.

I had the pleasure of meeting Alyssa on the Sunday before she passed away. My son Trent was hiding baby chicks at our house which Billy was giving her for her Birthday. It was evident that they had a very special love for each other. Trent spent a lot of time with the two of them this last month, and they were both there through some difficult times for Trent. Trent is heartbroken, he loved them both so much. I too would like to have spent more time with them. We are so sorry for your loss.....if we can be of help, please don't hesitate to reach out to both my son and I!
