You and I have shared such an amazing friendship over so many years. 30 years may not seem like much to some people, but you have always been in my life in some way and I can't imagine a life without you in it. I'm so happy that you had a chance to experience happiness and joy in your life despite the struggles you had to overcome. You have always been so brave and strong and I know that the stars will be a little brighter because your love is shining down on all of us that miss you. Thank you for being you. Rest in peace, my dear sweet Kay. I'll be seeing you.

It seems like only yesterday Mary Kay (I always called her Kay-Kay) and Lori were riding their bikes together from our house to hers, going on vacations with us, shopping trips and out to eat, and sleep overs at each others home every weekend. She was always my other daughter. We will miss you but knowing you are with your mom,dad,Granny Horn, and Darlene makes it a little less painful to let you go. God has blessed us with some wonderful memories.Rest in peace sweetheart. Our love for you will live forever in our heart and memories till we are all together again.Jackie Gothard
