Clara M. Dimmock

MAY 23, 2015

Clara M. (DeCicco) Dimmock, 98, passed away peacefully at the Westerly Nursing Home in Rhode Island on Saturday, May 23, 2015, to be with the love of her life, Harley “Chub” Dimmock who predeceased her in 1968. Clara was born, raised, married and raised her own family in Willington, CT. She leaves behind her loving daughter and son-in-law, Judith (Dimmock) Garreffi and Peter Garreffi; as well as her sister and best friend, Madelyn Mackovich; and several special nieces. She was predeceased by her brothers Alphonse DeCicco and Silvio DeCicco; and sisters Antoinette Repko and Mary Belcher. There are no calling hours and services will be held privately for the family graveside at St. Edward Cemetery, Stafford Springs, CT. “When you saw one set of footsteps it was then that I carried you.” Introvigne Funeral Home, Inc., Stafford Springs, CT, has care of the arrangements. Dear Judy, Peter, and Madeline, sorry for the loss. I always enjoyed when she and Madeline came to get their hair done. Not to long under the dryer she would say. Hugs to all of you.
