It's kinda surreal that your gone, you fought till the very end. You were always stubborn so I didn't expect anything different from you with this, but sadly you had to leave us. I know you didn't want us to cry or mourn you, but we just can't help but feel the loss of you, you were/are my big brother, the oldest of the "Caldwell Clan" and as I sit here I can't help but smile of all the beautiful memories you left me with, rides in your little red convertible, When you talked me into lip synching to Bon Jovi at Sun Valley for some event you were hosting, walking around in that tux you were so handsome! everyone loved you, how could they not, you had this personality that was contagious even if someone didn't want to like you, they did eventually. I know you weren't the same person when you left us, but don't you worry I remember you as you once were, fearless, funny, loving and let's be truthful a pain in the butt sometimes but God I loved you! I miss you and I honestly don't want to say goodbye to you it hurts too much so I'm not going to, I'm saying until we see eachother again Brucey I love you. #9 xxoo

So sorry to hear of Bruce's passing. Our family spent a lot of time with his family and he was special friend to me. I remember how he loved to rocking his younger sisters in the rocking chair. Always the big brother to the younger brothers and sisters And of course a great cross country runner. My sympathy to him and his family. Joy Stewart

My deepest sympathy to Gary and his family. You all are in my thoughts. Some of my fondest childhood memories have Bruce in them, like when he scared me doing donuts with Omer's car in the snow, and just laughing. Lots of laughing. :)
