Whether Grandpa was letting me ride on his tractor or calling in the cattle for dinner or picking some corn for dinner, he would always involve me in the simplest farm life chores. Covered in hay after a long day of work, he'd sit and eat dinner with us. Then he'd play cribbage with Grandma and head into the living room where he'd watch CBS news until he was snoring away in his chair. He liked to watch Grand Ole Opry and loved chocolate ice cream on Saturday nights. I loved my Grandpa Cuoghi and always will. Memories of him will live on.

Our deepest sympathy to all the family: We always shared a special day with Roxanna and Victor, we were married on the same day, same year and for years sent each other cards on our anniversaries. I don't think Victor ever forgot Phyllis jumping out of the "cake" at Milt's 70th Birthday party, he often mentioned it. Susan, Milt and all the family
