Still remember the times riding around with you and Brian blasting music in your van laughing at the goofy songs we would put on. The time you and Jeff surprised me for my 21st birthday and you but got really drunk and you passed out on my couch and Jeff passed out hanging out my slider door lol. I will remember the times the group all hungout and played video games and went to Shaker Bowl and out to Denny's late at night. Brings me to that one time you Ben Brian and I went out to Denny's and you looked at Brian and I and was like watch this. You grabbed your food went and sat in the booth we these two girls across from us and just continued eating didn't even say a word to them lmao. Then you came back and sat with us and a few minutes later their boyfriends walked in and Brian and I were like oh shit lol. We couldn't stop laughing. Can't believe your gone man. So glad i got to talk to you before your passing. I love ya man, fly high with the angels.

Carl has been a part of my life through my brother and his sister was friends with my sister. I've known Carl for about 16 years. I've watched him grow up to be a wonderful man. He has always been my 2nd brother. I remember him always being at the house playing video games with kenny. They would argue over who won or what not and it was like they were true brothers. Carl will always hold a special place in my heart because he was a big part of my growing up. He fought a battle that no one should have to. He decided how it would end and it takes a lot of courage to make that choice. My heart breaks but I know he is with his sister and father living it up now in heaven. He will be missed but he will never be forgotten. His mom is probably the strongest woman I've ever had the privilege of knowing. My heart and prayers are with her and the family now as the try to adjust to this new chapter in life. My God bless Darlene and the family as the move forward. I love you Carl, till I see you again rock out the heavens.
