Ines (Mottes) Bardini, 97, of Stafford Springs, CT, wife of the late Dominic Bardini, peacefully went to sleep on Thursday, July 13, 2017 at Evergreen Health Care Center. She was born in Fai, Italy, daughter of the late Albino and Silvia (Tonidandel) Mottes. She moved to Stafford Springs, CT at the age of seven and resided there for the rest of her life. Ines is survived by her two daughters, Janice Curnan and Nancy Mamunes and her husband Anthony; three grandchildren, Timothy Curnan and his wife Heather, Cathy Lamberg and her husband Kevin, and Michael Mamunes; four great grandchildren, Lauren and Ashley Lamberg, and Dominic and Ian Curnan; and several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her grandson, Keith Curnan; and brother, Onorio Mottes. The family would like to thank the staff at Evergreen for all of their care, and also to Bob Brozek, for his love and support throughout the years. I have known Ines for 65 years. Her mother Sylvia watched over my Mother's younger siblings when their mother died an early death. My Mom and Sylvia were great friends and we visited often - seeing Ines as well. She was always smiling, generous with cookies and cakes. She was gracious and always so prettily dressed, even when money was scarce. We would see each other on my many trips to Stafford, but sadly no more. Rest easy, Bella.
