My deepest and most sincere condolences on Harold's passing. Pa was always there for us, giving so much of himself at every turn. He treated Mere with such love, and treated our little blessed one like a King, with the humor, vitality, and gentleness that was at the center of his soul. He will be eternally missed.

My fondest memory of Harold was his kind attention to my dad, Andrew, when he was in the Nursing Home. He would spend several hours with him sharing stories about the family and the past, in an effort to cheer him up. He also delivered many dinners as a volunteer for "Meals on Wheels" when Dad was living alone. I am sorry to learn of Harold's passing, and sorry I'll not be able to attend the funeral, My deepest sympathy to all family members. Sincerely, Roberta Molitoris Wills Harold's cousin
