Seems like only yesterday, the happy times I had visiting with family, the times we'd wait for the train to come by, putting a penny on the rails for the train to flatten. Exploring the latest Beatles record. Ha! Going where we were told "not" to go. Begging my uncle Pete to play one more song on his guitar, a talent which I am still trying to emulate with only a small amount of success. And in all these memories, Bob was a very huge part. My memories of Bob are all nice ones, very nice indeed! Mike Gessay

I lived near Iggy when I was a kid and our families had some similarities that we would occasionally talk about when we were going to school. Has a youngster there was nobody more loyal as a friend than Iggy. I know his life was a tough one not only for him but for his entire family. Hopefully now he will be able to Rest In Peace. I hope you find the good in him and can share some good memories. Today I am thinking of some of my childhood memories of him and it puts a smile on my face. My condolences to the entire family.
