Well, Dad, it's been a year since you left us. I miss you every second of every day and so wish you were still here, but I know you are not in pain and can do the things you love. Your dogs are doing good, they are good boys. We made amazing changes to your house, it looked so good when we turned it over to the tenants. Megan and Eric are great tenants and they had Thanksgiving there and are having Christmas there. They love your house and we are happy there is another family to grow there. I know you are watching out for us. Love you.
