Elizabeth "Betty" Groleau

MAR 16, 2019

Elizabeth "Betty" Groleau, 87, passed away on March 16, 2019, at Fox Hill Nursing Center in Vernon, CT. She was born in Stafford Springs, CT on June 21, 1931, to her parents James T. and Elizabeth M. (Roche) McAnanama. Betty was a lifelong resident of Stafford Springs, CT and was married in St. Edward Church to the late Edmond J. Groleau of Rockville, CT in 1950. She graduated from Stafford High in 1949 and was active in the glee club and was on the basketball team. She was employed by The United Envelope Company in Rockville, CT, the Stafford Conservatories, and her last job was Administrative Secretary at the Stafford Middle school for 28 years, retiring in 1997. Family and friends were her passion and delight, she was a great listener and confidante. She sat with her children on Saturday's talking and listening to music. She enjoyed watching the Patriots and UConn basketball with family. Betty attended St. Edward Church until her illness prevented it. She was the head of The Catholic Daughters of America, putting on the most amazing fashion show for charity. She was also a Girl Scout leader for many years with her daughters. Her spirit of generosity and love was showered over her five children and grandchildren, Laurie DesChamplain, Lynn Rose (James), Robert Groleau (Sue Holmes), Lisa Dallacorte, and Edmond J. Groleau, Jr. (Sharon Hubbard); eight grandchildren, Shawn Groleau (Jess), Daniel DesChamplain, Christopher DesChamplain, James L. E. Rose (Ariel), Ryan, Adam, Chelsea, and Courtney; and five great grandchildren, Noah (DesChamplain) McLane, Brayden Groleau, Bella Groleau, Lianna Groleau, and Braedon DallaCorte. "Sis" leaves her only sister, Shirley and husband John Osterman of Stafford Springs, CT; and sisters-in-law, Judith McAnanama of Stafford Springs, CT and Carol McAnanama of Florida. She also leaves two dear childhood friends, Merline Lawrence and Juanita Scism. She was predeceased by three brothers, James, Richard and Robert; a nephew, Alan McAnanama; a grandson, David J.
