Brother, I remember all the times we had, you, Anna Mae, Louise and I. When we spent those two weeks in St Croix with Dottie and Bob. When we got together, we always had a wonderful time. You are missed, but will be forever in my memories.

I always loved visiting Uncle Paul and Auntie Anna Mae... I have a bunch of great memories as a kid of walking in the garden with him. Many prayers during such a difficult time and I'd certainly be there to commend him to God's keeping and celebrate his life with you this week if I could.
