It's so very sad to learn of Joe (Dad's) passing. I spend so much time with his family that I felt to be a real part of it. Joe taught me so many good things over the years. I loved spending time with him , my favorite was cutting wood for all the Satkowski family.We all had so much fun together, Although I haven't lived in Stafford for many years, I often thought of the family and kept them all in my daily prayers. I hope that the one thing gives them a little comfort is to know that now both Joe and Shirley are together again.Rest Peaceful Dad,Love you,,Bobby
