My loving grandma. We shared some secrets and some giggles. You let me practice makeup on you and we did a photo shoot, with real film. Haha! I have missed you. Alzheimer's is an ugly disease that stole you away. Remember thanksgiving before Jake was born? You all came to my house because we were on baby watch. Dad (Rick) cooked for us and my oven was too small for the bird? But y'all made it work. And you were there for Jake's arrival the next week. Love you grandma!!

My husband Joe and I wish to say that Jeannine was one of the dearest and most loving ladies that we were so blessed to have had in our lives for many years. We shared many great times with her and Dick and their wonderful family. I will truly miss her but know that she is finally at peace and with all her family that she loved so much. She had a beautiful spirit and deep faith in God and loved her church. We love you and will never forget . you. To Paula, Bob, AL and Rick our sincere sympathy to you all. Love Kathy and Joe Jeannine was like a second mom in our formative years growing up in Stafford. I was looking at an old picture today from a trip we all took to Cape Cod-Jeannine, Mom, Al, Kelly, and I on bikes outside the shore. It inspired a flood of memories from all of our Christmas Eve's spent together, summer cookouts-all the times Jeannine made so special. Condolences to Al, Paula, Bobby, Ricky, their families, and the community of friends that Jeannine touched as much as ours all those years ago in Stafford.

I will add to this and say that some of my best memories of growing up in Stafford are from the Brisard's house. Jeannine was so incredibly generous with her love and warmth. Sending love to the family ❤️ Kelly
