I have so many wonderful memories with Ma Stanford. From going to see the Oakridge Boys, going out dancing, movies, crafting, cooking and so much more. We stayed connected when I moved to Florida, she helped me through the loss of my mom, the loss of my brother Lonny and so many other things. I shared lots of great memories and milestones with her. My heart breaks not only because I lost someone so special, but it breaks for the family. I will always keep her alive in my heart. Sending much love and prayers to the family. Marge (Warner) Bates

My sympathies to your family. I worked with Joan at Mansfield for many years and also knew her and your Dad through the Stafford Grange. Joan had the BEST sense of humor and always was a hard worker and good friend. RIP Joan, you were one of the best!
