Mary Sylvestre posted:

Aline and Manny always came to CVS and were like a ray of sunshine. Aline was always sharing jokes and always made me laugh. She would share stories of how she and Manny met and of her days back in MA. She loved to bring me Portuguese sweet bread, cookies, or her home made body powder, but the best thing she brought was her sense of humor. She and Manny could make you smile and laugh even on your worst day. I feel so sad to hear of her passing, but I feel blessed to have known her. My heart and my prayers go out to her family.

I was glad I ran into your folks last month. What fun we had when you lived up the road. We loved all the stories and she always made us laugh. She's with my Mom now and they are probably catching up

Dear family, We are so very sorry to hear about Aline. She was always a kind but strong woman. Her and Manny would swing by my work and drop cookies off just out of the blue which was always appreciated! She will be dearly missed by all she knew.With caring thoughts, The Parizek Family
