You are dearly missed Meme. Although I've had this day in the back of my mind for some time now, it makes it no easier. You have always loved unconditionally everyone who walks through your door. I owe so much that I've accomplished and who I've become to your support and many words of wisdom you've given me (sometimes by force). I will treasure our time together forever and my only saving grace is that your boys have waited a long time to see you. I'll carry your lessons and wit forward as long as I'm here. Love King Louie ❤️

Sue was a friends with my parents and we spent time with her family by their pool, our pool, or in Misquamicut. She was always a lot of fun. She was also our Girl Scout leader and meetings were at her house. I had my first sleepover there with Lynette. When I was 18 she hired me as an intern the summer before I started college. She let me take license pictures all summer and I loved it. She was good to me in my formative years, and that's not something I'll ever forget. I also admired her humor and no-nonsense attitude. My sincere condolences to her family.

On behalf of the Collette family I send our condolences. Meme was always so caring, loving, and welcoming to myself, my sister and of course my brother. We loved spending time at the pool when young kids and enjoyed many family reunions. Even all these years later she continued to spread that love to the new generations. She welcomed the kids with open arms and of course an open freezer full of popsicles. My kids also enjoyed coming over on Halloween to get the good candy and listen to Meme's stories about me as a kid. She will be missed. Our thoughts go to the entire family.

Ronald, Ron, Lynette, Renee and family: our love and prayers are with you all! Susie will be missed here on Earth but will be flying with the best of the best Angels in Heaven! I cannot imagine what the Welcome Party in Heaven looked like! I'm sure the Party is still on going! Susie was not only loving, kind, and friendly but she was non-judgmental and welcomed everyone into her arms and heart and that quality will be so missed by all.
