Renaud J. Laprise

MAR 30, 2023

Renaud J. Laprise, 83, of East Hartford, CT, passed away on March 30, 2023. He was born in Ste. Cecile, Quebec, Canada, son of the late Emile and Irene (Mercier) Laprise. He passed away peacefully in his home, whom he shared with his youngest son, Steve. Renaud worked as a machinist until retirement. He was a devout Catholic and a parishioner of Saint Christopher's Church in East Hartford, CT. His hobbies included cutting firewood, watching and attending NASCAR races, cooking for his family, and working in his garden. He was a social, generous man who valued forming strong relationships with everyone he met. He saw goodness in everyone and encouraged people to continuously do better. He adored his grandchildren and great grandchildren. Renaud is survived by his three children, LuAnn Krepcio and her husband John, Real Laprise and his wife Nathalie, and Steve Laprise; six grandchildren; eight great grandchildren; four siblings, Jacques Laprise and his wife Lise, Alain Laprise, Michel Laprise and his wife Laura, and Marc Laprise; sister-in-law, Celine Laprise; and many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his grandson, Casey White; brothers, Viateur, Renald, and Jean-Guy Laprise; and sister, Lisette (Laprise) Paloczi. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Saturday, April 15, 2023 at 10 A.M. at St. Christopher's Church, 538 Brewer St., East Hartford, CT. Burial will follow in the St. Mary Cemetery Mausoleum, East Hartford, CT. Introvigne Funeral Home, Inc., Stafford Springs, CT, has care of the arrangements. This man, who I affectionately call Pops was my neighbor and my friend. Always imparting his words of wisdom".We would sometime spar over our difference of opinion and more than one time one of us would send the other home.I will forever be thankful for having him in my life.Love you always, Pops ❤️ Trina

Renaud was a family man and he loved his family deeply He would always say it as it was (like it or not) this was one the qualities I admired about him and will miss .I remember the last time he came down to Laura and Michels he came over to our place for supper and we had a great evening He would always say something that wasn't expected hihhi and we would all laugh including him .I know he loved his brother Michel (as well as all his family because he would always brag about them all) and we would go over to my sister's and they (he and Michel) would be cutting trees or even sometimes (if we went too early in afternoon) sleeping on the sofas in front of the tv or in the cabin snoring their heads off . Louis loved talking with him when they were together and I loved him too ...he will be missed ❤️

Renaud made a big difference for me. He taught me a lot about society, politics and life in general. I'm glad he took time for grandma in Canada before she passed away. I'm glad for his honesty and for the great advice he gave me through the years. You certainly will be missed. My thoughts are for you family, my cousins and your grand children. Daniel Laprise
