AW Shirley...what can I say...I felt terrible when I saw your name on this sight..If only we could somehow erase time to change things for everyone..wouldnt that be wonderful... Shirley and I go way back..we use to drive school buses together..we use to have breakfast together..we were known to pop in on a tag sale or two...who knows what else...if Shirley was your friend ..you just never knew what you'd end up doing..actually that stands for me also..we just never knew what we'd come up with..as nancy richens put it...she was a firecracker...without a doubt..she certainly was and that's exactly what i will always remember about her..we did everything from invite ourselves to someones party to bake cakes...I think of you often Shirley and I could tell that you were struggling when I did meet up with you and Im so sorry for all that you went through..I will always miss you but I will always remember what you brought to my life..as well as Timmys..May you now be at peace my friend... Love You Shirl

Shirley was an amazing woman, as you all know. Her sense of humor, her love of her family and her caring for her friends made her loved by so many. I enjoyed her visits for lunch with Craig and others. Always a smile, a kind word and a sassy, lovable way about her. She is now truly an angel. My hugs for you all.
