Roger personified everything that makes our neighborhood such a joy and privilege to live in. He was deeply devoted to his wonderful wife Marlene, his adult children and his grandchildren. He was a friendly, helpful and caring neighbor with a beautiful yard and gardens that reflected his joy in working outside. Although he was a bit of a terror to marauding squirrels who raided his fruit trees, he had a soft heart and handouts for the local crows and his other backyard birds. He looked out for his neighbors and was always willing to help out with a smile. During many snow storms, he plowed the top of our driveway so we could easily access the road and kept an eye out on our home when we were away. We knew him as a friend who was grateful and content with all he was blessed with in life. A genuinely wonderful human being, we are honored to have known him and will miss our impromptu conversations at the mailbox. Chris & Kathy Demers
