I worked with Larry at 3M, I missed him as soon as he retired. He had decades of experience that he was willing to share at any time and helped me understand the production machines we worked on. He made countless suggestions to help improve operations and was always doing his part to make a quality product. As another employee said, I use what I learned from Larry every day. He also talked about his kids and grandkids, the latest flowers he was growing in his garden and even gave me some for my family's flower beds. I'm heartbroken that Larry didn't get to enjoy his retirement more and send my thoughts and prayers out to his family and friends. Mike Shannon

My deepest sympathy to Larry's family. He was very quiet in school and I never got to know him, unfortunately. My one memory was I had a ticket to see YES at Dillon stadium right before graduation and didn't have a ride. He and Ken Golas were kind enough to let me ride with them. It was a great concert & I will never forget this. Rest in Peace.Elaine T.

To Larry's entire family I told the story recently, to people I met here, about entering my junior year high school in September 1975. Larry (a senior) took me out for a ride. Before I knew what hit me, my sister Audrey (a senior) stole him from me. I didn't stand a chance! He would call the house and I'd answer. We would chat. When Audrey finally got to the phone, I would play my Joni Mitchell album in the background (loud) The first song on her 1971 Blue album was titled "All I Want" I'd play the entire album over and over again. Didn't get me Larry back. But it made me feel better 😊
Thinking of all of you. How difficult this must be. Warm regards DeDe Kana Greaves North Bennington Vermont

I worked with Larry at 3M and was saddened to learn of his passing. He trained me for my current role with the company. He was always helpful and forthcoming with the knowledge he accumulated over his 30 plus year career there. A day doesn't go by that I don't use what I've learned from him. My thoughts and condolences go to his family.
