On this anniversary of Christy's passing, I'm still extremely thankful to be able to have had Christy as one of my best friends. From working together to sharing stories of how much she loved Craig, Colton, Chloe, their extended family and their fur babies to sharing lots of laughs, I will continue to miss Christy. I think of her often and will continue to pray and send love to Colton, Chloe, and Craig. Until we meet again my dear friend!

May you rest in peace. A truly beautiful woman. So many wonderful memories from high school and all our time in the music department. May you sing in the angels choir.

Christy, you meant so much to me. You just fit in the family as soon as Craig brought you to our home. I loved you since I meant you. Your smile, your laughter always made things better. So much good to say about you. I'm so lucky to have had you in our lives. You will be missed everyday and everyday I will think of you my sweet daughter. I love you Christy, until we meet again. Mom

Not a moment goes by since I learned of Christy's passing that I haven't thought about her and her family. None of this makes any sense...Someone so selfless, so young, so fun, so meant to be here on earth with us to continue making a positive impact on all of our lives - gone. There's an eternal hole in my heart that may never mend but I'll hold tight to the memories of our ladies luncheons filled with so much laughter, wedding shenanigans, fishing escapades and having each others backs at work. All of my love and strength to Craig, Colton and Chloe. Always and forever, Kerri Shaughnessy
