We enjoyed going to the Big E with John one year. And he went to the Lynard Skynard concert with us. It was Lynard Skynard, Charlie Daniel's, Marshall Tucker & Jamey Johnson. John loved to dance & the outdoors concert didn't stop him from doing just that. He got up & was dancing with the ladies next to us . I wish I could find my videos to post them. John will be missed. May he R.I.P. our condolences goes out to the family

John Stafford will never be the same without you dear friend. I loved his smile and his laugh filled your heart. Rest in peace my friend. I called him John Boy and he called me Annie Oakly. He came to the Inn often when I open the doors of Angelina Inn Keepers Place, John was always looking for breakfast. You are missed.

John was the first person to welcome me to Crooked S Road, pattering up the driveway on his motorcycle, introducing himself and telling me all about his life in Stafford. I had the good fortune to walk with him on the local roads and spent time with him rounding up his recalcitrant cows when need be. I will miss John's sense of humor, love of Stafford and commitment to the town's agriculture. He was a natural story teller and a good neighbor. Heartfelt sympathy to his family and many friends.
