My sincere condolences to PJ. Your dad loved you very much and was always taking about you. My brother John was a lot of fun in our younger days. I hope he is having some fun with mom and dad. I am going to miss talking to you about old cars. You should have been a race car driver

I had many conversations with John over chat and most of what he talked about was how proud he was of PJ. I have a lifetime of memories I could share but his love and pride for his son will be what I remember the most. Although I am so sad for the loss of my lifetime friend, it breaks my heart more that PJ has lost his Dad. I hope he knows how much John loves him. My deepest condolences also to his sister Karen and his brother Michael, also life long friends of mine. Rest easy now Johnny. When the Jets beat the Giants, I'll be thinking of you.

I was so shocked to hear of John's passing. We were on FB all the time and I never knew he was sick. John came to work at the Beneficial Finance Office in Bay Shore where I trained John to know the business. We had lots of fun working together and he was so smart.. He picked up everything I taught him so quickly. We also had a lot of get togethers at my House where John was one of the gang and we all had a great time together. I am so sorry for his son. I remember when he got a motorcycle and used to ride with our boss Jay Molly and my husband. Just gone way too soon. Too sad. You are an Angel in Heaven now looking down on your son and family. Will miss talking to you on FB. You were so funny. Love Peggy Fevola

John.....you will be remembered for that smile of yours, always positive, quirky, and very generous in many ways. It was a joy to have you in our family throughout all these years. Please rest knowing PJ will be well cared for and supported through this difficult time in his life. I laugh and cry as I imaging you walking through the golden gates with that smile and announcing boisterously that you have arrived, as if everyone has been waiting for you. Enjoy your new journey, I will look forward to seeing you again one day. Much love. Lori Miller
