

Richard J. Keating

MAR 1, 2024

Scan to Visit

Introvigne
Funeral Home, Inc.

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 4

Richard J. Keating

MAR 1, 2024

Richard Joseph Keating, Jr., of Stafford Springs, CT, passed away suddenly after a short illness. He was 56 years old. He was a devout member of the Holy Trinity Orthodox Church in Willimantic, CT. Richard's family would like to express our gratitude to Father Marc Vranes, as well as Richard's closest friends, Bruce and Nick of the Holy Trinity Orthodox Church. Richard had a unique way of looking at the world. He loved geography and history. He looked forward to traveling to new places whenever he could. One of his favorite excursions was traveling along the coast of Maine in search of the best lobster. At family gatherings, Richard would chat with his sisters about traditional family recipes and international cuisine and would entertain everyone by remembering and reciting lines from old TV sitcoms. Even though he was allergic, Richard loved cats and would occasionally find a stray to care for. Patches was his favorite. Richard will be greatly missed by his family. Richard was the youngest son of Richard J. and Veronica L. (Boiardi), and was raised in Billerica, MA. He leaves his sister Leah and her husband Larry Marquis of Merrimack, NH, brother John and his wife Celeste of Carlisle, MA, and sister Rachel and her husband Brian Tarr of Atkinson, NH. Also, his nephew Robert Biagioni and his wife Kiara, along with their children, Miles and Avery, and niece Stephanie and her husband Daniel Barber, along with their son Jack. A celebration of Richard's life will be scheduled by his family at a later date. To leave a condolence online for the family, please visit: www.introvignefuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

Richard J. Keating

Nick Holcomb posted:

I knew Richard for a brief period after meeting him at church. He became a great friend of mine, and I very quickly find myself missing his company on our Sunday night outings, and coffee hours. Condolences to his family. His memory will most certainly be eternal.

March 11 at 8:45 AM

Meghan Scott lit a candle in honor of Richard.

March 9 at 7:07 AM

Sheldon Sutton lit a candle in honor of Richard.

I worked with Richard for 13 years he was a pleasure to talk to and always seems to be happy I'm going to miss you dear friend. My deepest condolences to the family.

March 9 at 6:59 AM

Zach Novosad posted:

I will cherish the many memories and conversations i had with Richard during coffee hour. He was always radiating such positivity. He will be greatly missed. My deepest condolences to his family. Youre all in my prayers. Memory Eternal Richard

March 8 at 5:45 PM

Bruce Maxwell posted:

I extend my deepest condolences to Richard's family. He was a good friend and I will miss him a great deal. I loved talking with him and his love of history, movies and cooking. May his memory be eternal and may his family and friends find solace and comfort. Bruce Maxwell

March 8 at 1:20 PM

Katrina Hastings-Fetzko lit a candle in honor of Richard.

March 8 at 5:00 AM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Richard by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

Introvigne
Funeral Home, Inc.