Kenneth D. Ireland

JUN 29, 2024

Kenneth Darryl Ireland, age 35, originally of Tolland, CT passed away unexpectedly at home with the love of his life on Saturday, June 29, 2024. Patricia (Parzych) Barclay and Ronald Ireland brought a man with a golden heart into this world on December 18, 1988 at Manchester Hospital. Kenny graduated from Tolland High School in 2007, where he was known for being a respectful, caring, funny, loving individual. Kenny loved all sports, especially football. You will never find a more avid, dedicated and loyal, Cowboys Fan, even though he knew being a Dallas fan was never easy! Ken had this amazing charisma and charm that touched so many hearts. He touched so many people's hearts just for being himself, Kenny. He always knew how to swing anything in his favor (like when he was a junior and convinced his sophomore teacher to let him go on the sophomore field trip!). He was a master of all trades and an extremely hard worker. He loved creating unique things and working with his hands so naturally landscaping and construction were job fields that he loved working in. People were drawn to Ken, making it easy for him to make friends everywhere he went. Ken had an unexplainable, amazing charisma and natural charm that allowed him to extend his love to many people. Kenny's love and compassion for others was just a true testament to who Kenny was as a person. He touched many hearts in his short time on this earth. He married on September 9, 2017, and always made it a priority to make the world know how much he adored his wife and daughter. Kenny was the biggest "mama's boy" you'll ever meet and had no shame in letting it show. Everyone who met Kenny loved him just because he was KENNY!

Kenny is survived by his loving wife, Shennae Ireland and their daughter, Cassidy Ireland. He is also survived by his mother, Patricia Barclay (and her husband Michael Barclay) and his father Ronald Ireland (and his wife Kimberly Klei-Ireland), his siblings, Elizabeth Ireland, Leslee Barrows and Cecil Barrows and Carolyn Klei, as well as his paternal grandfather, Phillip Ireland,

Genuine pure true devoted love and what a true committed marriage is. You taught me patience, kindness, how to approach situations, to think of the big picture vs the moment, how to control emotions and my favorite..... how to read and screen people. I am so lucky to be your wife. I miss you and absolutely love the hell out of you ☐

I can think of a thousand of memories with you...but I wish we could make a thousand more. I know we are still together...maybe not physically..but you took a piece of my mind body and soul the day you left..and gave me all these memories that no one can ever take from me. I miss you more and more as the days pass...and I love you so much more..So when you see me crying babe..wipe away my tears like you always did..but just know when the last tear drops..I'll be thinking of all our memories and it'll make me smile even more ❤️ We will always remain Mr. & Mrs until the last breath I take...when I take my last breath...I know you'll be waiting for me to run and jump into your arms. And we'll both be happy to be back together as we belong.

Oh my baby baby baby baby baby. . .I honestly am still in shock. How am I supposed to live without my soulmate? I can't even remember what life is like without you. But to be honest..if I had 20 more years with you..it still wouldn't be enough. My heart would still break like this. I would still wake up thinking I'm in a dream. I would still sleep on your pillows just to smell your scent. I still would randomly laugh and cry like a crazy women. Because no amount of time with you...would ever be enough.Thank you for loving me every single day even when it was hard. Thank you for teaching me to be patience & kind. Thank you for building me up to be a strong confident women. Thank you for picking up the broken stones and rebuilding our foundation.
