I used to sit next to the Bennett family rows at Stafford Speedway, just across the aisle. I remember that Herb always brought many healthy snacks in a cooler, and a sharp knife to cut fruit & then eat slices, knife still in his hand! I thought it must have taken real concentration to not get stabbed in his mouth, especially when Michael was involved in an incident on the track. Condolences to the entire Bennett clan. Michael A. Brown (I usually wore my Prestone black/yellow racing jacket) & listened to the drivers & spotter....Herb, Jr..... on my scanner / earphones. I'll be back @ some races this season and will miss seeing the leader of the Bennett family.

Herb Bennett was a hell of a man! very family minded! I met Herb as a young boy when I was pumping gas at my Dad's at that time was a gas station, and he pulled in with a 67 Chrysler Impereal. And from that time He became lifelong friends of our family! Throughout the year we grew forever closer to the point we are family. Best friends of my father, we grew older, my father passed, and then Liz (Dorothy) Who our family called her after the Statler Bros. hit Elizebeth passed made Herb very sad, but kept his chin up! Herb and his family weren't just friends they are family! Herb, I love you, and I'll miss you more than anyone knows! And , you still owe me $100 bucks for that bet!
